Please note that this chart is for guidance purposes only - we will be happy to talk to you about your options. All awards and qualifications are subject to demonstration of competence at the appropriate level. ICTAQ qualifications as Practitioner, Advanced Practitioner and Master Practitioner can be specialised into 3 fields -Start Here Developmental TA, TA Psychotherapy, or TA Coaching. They can also be completed as TA Manager, Advanced Manager and Master Manager. Was the training you received from someone who had international endorsement as a CTA Trainer, PTSTA or TSTA (they will have told you this or you can check with us) Do you already have ITAA/EATA CTA accreditation, or equivalent, or have Do you want to check out that you are adding TA into your professional 'toolbox' Have you already received some training and/or professional supervision in TA Do you already hold a non-TA qualification? YES-YES NO NO you produced your CTA Written Exam competently? (assessed or not)? YES YES YES NO You may be able to get credit for the hours already done-please check with us You may be able to go straight to a Master's degree on the basis of Accreditation of Prior Consider adding the TA Certificate to your existing professional qualifications (and later you can always keep going to Diploma and beyond) NO when you have explored your options for qualifications Learning How do you want to use the TA that you learn? Potential Qualification TA Master Practitioner with Master's degree option (Developmental TA, TA Psychotherapy or TA Coaching) Please contact us to discuss these options Option 2 Option 1 Option 2
As a 'helping professional' such as coach, trainer, consultant, teacher, social worker, psychotherapist, counsellor, HR professional or similar - any role where you facilitate the development of others - children or adult, families, team, organisations or communities If you follow the 'professional' route as a For my own professional development, to add TA within my skills as a manager or team leader professionar route as a manager, your qualification will be TA Manager, Advanced Manager and Master Manager instead of TA Practitioner For my own personal development and/or with my friends and family Option 4 Option 1 Option 2 Attend 120 hrs training and apply what you learn over at least 8 months, and have at least 3 years Option 1 Option 2 Option 3 Produce a file with evidence that you have applied at least You are welcome to attend the training Produce a file with You are welcome to attend the training without seeking any qualifications evidence that you have applied at least 6 TA ideas training and apply hat you learn over at least 6 months without seeking any qualifications 6 TA ideas management experience Potential Qualification Potential Award Potential Qualification Potential Award ILM Level 5 Diploma in Leadership & Management TA Personal/ Professional Award Chartered Manager status in CMI Option 4 - Advanced Diploma Option 5 Option 1 Option 3 - Diploma Option 2 - Certificate Diploma Complete Certificate and Diploma and attend at least a further150 hrs of training and 40 hours of supervision, another 50 hours of professional application, and produce a case study demonstrating competence as a practitioner/researcher By completing the requirements for Master Practitioner, you have also completed the requirements for the EATA/ITAA TA written and oral exams. Complete the requirements for the Certificate and attend at least a further 75 hours of training and 20 hours of supervision, produce evidence of competent application for at least another 150 hours You are welcome to attend Attend at least 75 hrs of the training without seeking any qualifications Attend at least 75 hrs of training, at least 15 hours of supervision, keep a reflective journal over 8 months, and provide evidence of competent application for 100 hours There is no similar option for Managers. Potential Qualification Potential Qualification Certified Transactional Analyst (Counselling, Educational, Organisational, or Psychotherapy only) awarded by EATA or ITAA (IBOC) Potential Qualification Potential Qualification TA Master Practitioner (with specialisation) or TA Master Manager
This option can also be combined with a Master's degree TA Practitioner TA Advanced Practitioner (with specialisation) (with specialisation) TA Manager TA Advanced Manager

Although we refer above to ITAA and EATA qualifications, ICTAQ will be happy to discuss the equivalence of qualification processes operated by other bodies. ICTAQ supports the aims of WOTAA www.wotaa.org to create a truly worldwide TA community.